

The Friends of Dame Laura Knight Society Malvern & Colwall Branch

Our aim is to promote awareness and celebrate the paintings of Dame Laura and Harold Knight.

The Friends of Dame Laura Knight Society was formed in 2008. Dame Laura Knight was a painter with a national and international reputation who lived and painted in Malvern until 1961. However memories of her had diminished; a group of interested people considered it time to revive her reputation and so the Society came into being.

Dame Laura painted in and around Malvern for over 30 years and was closely associated with the Malvern Festival, meeting and painting many celebrities of the time. Her style comprehensive, with both an intimate and broad brush, includes landscapes, interiors and portraits.

Our Society is growing and has held many successful events which have raised Dame Laura's profile locally. Working in cooperation with other Societies, such as U3A, D.F.A.S. and the Lamorna Society. We have established links with the 'Autumn in Malvern Festival' with whom we present annual lectures given by important speakers. One such lecture will take place on October 22nd this year and will be given by Alison Bevan, Director of Royal West of England Academy.

Each year for the membership fee we offer a joint lecture with the Festival, at least one gallery visit, an illustrated lecture and a social event or guided walk.

If you are interested in joining our Society and making a contribution to our aims, please complete the form on the reverse of this flyer and return with the fee to the Membership Secretary, Rosemary Harward.
